and so on until they are gone

Then there is Ladies' Hose, lisle thread and cotton. Also Ladies' Summer Underwear, plenty warm enough for now, with sleeves, without sleeves and short sleeves. You can have them at one-half the marked price. Good buying even if you keep them until the warm weather comes again.

Town Topics

The Wetaskiwin Brass Band deserves publicly to thank the city council for the use of the fire hall as a practice room for the past few weeks, but they regret that upon the motion of Alds. Montgomery and Otto the council has now seen fit to order them to vacate. The boys have practised industriously during the past few months, have entertained the citizens with a number of open-air concerts during the summer, and now, with the cold evenings coming, feel that they do not deserve to be thus turned out upon the street. The only place at present offered in which they may practise is the skating rink, but this is too cold and draughty for the purpose.

J. R. Tweedale is in Edmonton this week spending a part of his vacation.

G. H. Robinson came in from Dryden last week and intends residing here for some time.

Mrs. Dr. Walker accompanied Mrs. Walker and Miss Payne of Ingersoll, Ont., who have been visiting here, to Banff on Monday last. They are en route home.

Frank Fee moved his family into the city from Penron Park this week.

The baseball season concluded on Wednesday evening with a social dance in Angus Opera House.

T. C. Rubbra is having a large show room erected on the lot adjoining the Massey Harris Implement rooms in which he purposes having an exhibition a very handsome lot of buggies, carriages and other vehicles.

It appears as though trouble did not come singly. No sooner had R. M. Angus been released from quarantine last week than his little son accidentally fell while playing and broke his arm at the elbow.

Gospel meetings will be held in the hall next to Geo. L. Owen's second hand store as follows: Sunday next at 3:30 and 8 p.m.; Tuesdays and Thursdays in English, Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays in Swedish at 8 p.m. Services will be continued until further notice.

A couple of changes were made in hotel circles this week. Mr. Macfarlane, a hotel man of experience, has taken over the Criterion which he intends continuing on high class lines. Mr. John Swan Jackson, formerly of the Criterion, has leased the Prince of Wales, where his purposes manning one of the very best hosteries in Western Canada.

Mrs. Jno. West and the Misses West left on Saturday last for the east. They were accompanied by Miss Gladys West of Innisfail. Miss Hi-Pe and Miss G. A. will attend Hawrelak College, Toronto, while Mrs. and Miss West will proceed to Prince Edward Island, where they will remain on an extended visit with relatives.

W. H. Bigelow, et al., were informed a few days ago that the decisions of the juries in the famous horse killing case against the C. P. R. had been reversed in the Supreme Court, which means that they have lost their case with all costs. The amount involved was the value of some 150 head of horses, or $4,000. The C. P. R. costs alone amount to about $1,500.

At a special meeting of the Alexandra public school board held on Wednesday forenoon, Miss Dora Christie, of Strathearn, a graduate of McGill University, was engaged to fill a position on the teaching staff, word having been received from Miss Stewart of Montreal that she was not now in a position to come to Alberta.

Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Montague returned on Thursday last from their trip to Prince Edward Island and eastern cities.

Dr. C. O. Gouin, honor graduate and gold medalist of Montreal Veterinary College, has opened up a Veterinary hospital and boarding stable for all kinds of domestic animals in the old Lane barn. See his advertisement.

A very painful accident happened to Mr. Geo. D. Williams, who is a brother here last Saturday evening, when she fell down a flight of stairs, slighting on her head. Fortunately no bones were broken and the sufferer is recovering as rapidly as can be expected.

Miss Maude Underhill Entertainer

Honorable Abraham E. Smith, U. S. Consul, Victoria, B. C., says: "Having been privileged to hear Miss Maude Underhill, of this city, deliver several recitations on different occasions, I take pleasure in stating that I have rarely seen her equal in declamation, gesture and enunciation. She has, on the stage, a very pleasing presence and address. Miss Underhill is an artist in her like, and always agreeably entertains her, hearers."—In Angus Opera House on Monday, September 17th.

O'BRIEN—In Wetaskiwin on the 16th inst., to Mr. and E. H. O'Brien, a son.

EVERETT—Near Penron Park, on September 12th, 1906, to Mr. and Mrs. A. Everett, a son.

SHANTZ—I in Wetaskiwin, on the 8th inst., Edward Bertrand, in fact son of Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Shantz, aged 11 months and 22 days.

BOBO—In Wetaskiwin on the 7th inst., the infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. L. Bobo, aged 1 year and 8 months.

SHANTZ—I in Wetaskiwin, on the 8th inst., Edward Bertrand, in fact son of Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Shantz, aged 11 months and 22 days.

SHANTZ—Kindly allow me a little space in your valuable journal to publicly compliment you on the manner in which you took the stand at the controversial hotel on the afternoon of September 1st, from the one-time esteemed and popular member of the Wetaskiwin constituency. Your actions were those of a gentleman, which is more than can be said of the person who attacked you. The profane and disgraceful language used by Mr. Rosenfeld on this occasion was disgusting to say the least, and any little respect he might have had prior to this incident has been lost forever in the estimation of the professional men and prominent citizens who witnessed the insolent and domineering manner in which you were attacked.

The consciousness of opinion of the bystanders was that you should have him arrested for violating the law which he as a Justice of the Peace and as a member of parliament should at least respect and obey, but I am loath to say to you have charitably allowed him to go unpunished.

Your article was well timed and quite proper and the member should have only ten pleasure at the opportunity of elucidating his connection with the matter rather thanchildishly taking your reference to the question as a personal matter and making the unkind, dabbling and pitiful attack upon you in the public manner he did.

Mr. Rosenfeld did not answer your questions, and the public can come to only one conclusion, i.e., that he was a party to underhand, or "cat-in-the-bag" tactics, as you term it, and allowed himself to be influenced by a clique which is endeavoring to govern not only the city of Wetaskiwin, but the entire constituency. If this is not the case let Mr. Rosenfeld come out like a man and tell the public what he knows, and what part he took in the location of the court house site.

Mr. Rosenfeld's statement that he knew nothing of the Government's plans re the court house here, reveals one of two things: Either he is not even in the confidence of the Government, or else he is deliberately endeavoring to cover up his steps in the conduct of which?

In conclusion, Mr. Editor, I think that Mr. Rosenfeld should be exposed to public stand in the matter, and that the public should be satisfied with the elusive explanation just now given in last week's Times. The electors of this constituency are entitled to hear the facts of the case and should insist on getting them. If Mr. Rosenfeld does not explain what action he had in this, the only public recognition Wetaskiwin has ever received from either the provincial or federal governments, he should be asked to resign. It would save his defeat at the next election.

Thank you for allowing me to trespass on your valuable space again.

Farming The West

With full knowledge of the climate and soil of the great prairie country of the West, the boundaries of the areas susceptible of profitable cultivation are continually being enlarged. It is not so long ago that it was discovered that the great Peace River country to the north of Edmonton was quite as fertile as the soil in the new provinces and that the climate, if anything was more equable and not any more severe. The Chinook winds which blow through the mountain passes, soften the rigor of the northern winter and keep the earth and air in a condition suitable for agriculture. Wheat grown three hundred miles north of Edmonton has been shown in Calgary and Winnipeg, and adjudged equal in quality to the famous Red Fife, which has no superior in the world. When railway communication has been established, with that region, the fertile belt of the west, available for settlement, will be materially increased. Now we learn that a sample of excellent wheat has been brought to Prince Albert, in the Saskatchewan valley from a point a hundred and fifty miles north, which has heretofore been regarded as beyond the area of successful cultivation. That the soil of the prairies almost if not quite three hundred miles north of Regina is suitable for grain growing is a matter for much gratification. It must be remembered that the climate of Saskatchewan is much colder than that in Alberta. The province is not sheltered in any respect by the mountains and the Chinook rarely if ever reaches that far east. That frost does not blight the grain opens a large possibility for settlement and production in the West. But doubtless we will find that the farmer will be able to follow his calling at a point even north of that indicated. At one time the wheat area was supposed to be confined to the province of Manitoba. That belief has gone with the growth of enormous harvests to the very foot hills of the Rockies. With the settlement of the country and the cultivation of the soil the climate conditions have changed for the better and the yield in the new provinces is of greater average than that in Manitoba. The advance to the north will continue with the increase of immigration and with the facilities for transportation the soil may be found fruitful almost to the latitude of Hudson Bay.—Seattle Post Intelligencer.

NEWS NOTES

Prince Albert, Sept 8th—Prince Albert is going to have the Saskatchewan penitentiary to cost millions of dollars. Options were secured on land a mile west of the city. About 1,200 acres is wanted and options have been secured on 700 acres. As soon as the land is secured, a building with 100 cells will be erected and a brick yard will be established.

Sir John, Sept 8th—A young farmer named Wild has given himself up to the authorities here for killing a young Englishman named Gold. Wild explains that the killing was accidental and happened while he was cleaning a gun. Wild's farm is in the Colchester Settlement about nine miles south of town.

Vergesville has been incorporated as a town.

The village of Camrose is applying for its erection into a town municipality.

After a delay of nearly two years the Dominion government has at last awarded the rewards that were offered for the capture of Ernest Casiel, the murderer, who, two days before the date set for his execution, escaped from jail. H. B. Coaser and J. Wigmore, who gave information to the effect that Casiel was in the Nose Creek district, get $25 each. Twenty volunteers, mostly members of the 15th Light Horse, who joined the Mounted Police on the day of the capture get $25 each.

Ottawa, Sept. 8.—Major Belcher, Calgary, was today and presented in specter R. W. M. P. in succession to Inspector McGinnis, deceased.

Fire at Lacombe

Lacombe, Sept. 8.—The thriving town of Lacombe had a visitation by the destroying element of fire this morning which wiped out an entire block and causing losses totalling over $100,000. Adelphi hotel $35,000. A. M. Campbell, store, $15,000. Louisa Confectionery Co., $8,000. Morris & Johnston, 7,000. Lacombe Drug Co., 6,000. Rose Drug Co., 5,000. John McNeely, real estate, 2,000. Dr. Auger, dentist, 3,000. Corlett & Dreery, law office unknown. Trimble & Poole law office unknown.

The area swept by fire was that of the triangular block to the west of the Canadian Pacific railway station and south of Main street. Only one building escaped, the Merchant bank, a three story brick, situated on the corner where the fire brigade had access to two sides of it. It was only after a heroic fight, however, that the bank building was saved.

DISTRICT NEWS

Gathered by our wide-awake Correspondents.

Pleasant Prairie

School commences this week.

The harvest is nearly over and summer ended.

The threshing machine whistle will soon be heard in every direction and people are expecting a good yield.

A nice quiet wedding occurred at the house of Mr. and Mrs. Haunah Aug. 24.

Three deaths have occurred in this neighborhood lately, viz the child of Mr. and Mrs. Gust Fourth, oldest child of Mr. and Mrs. Leo Fourth and a young man living on Mrs. Barnhill's farm. The report is that he and his mother were stacking hay and the team ran over him.

W. Black was out east of town 15 miles for about 11 days attending the F. M. camp meeting, at the wood in the Vermilion Valley. He doesn't think the country out that way comes up to the country west of Wetaskiwin, the land is not so good, and on account of the scarcity of good water and wood, it put him in mind of the old saying when he saw the hills of stone. They that buy beef by bones, they that buy land by stones.

According to reports Mrs. Schwab is the best walker on record so far, having walked out to Buffalo Lake, seventy miles in two days.

Millet

The Methodist church of Millet, Alta., was the scene of a charming event on the 29th inst., when the marriage of Miss Nellie Walker of Winnipeg to Mr. George A. Gall of Vancouver, Western manager of the O. H. Mortimer Publishing Co. limited, of Toronto, was witnessed in the presence of many guests.

Promptly at 7:30 p.m. the bridal party entered the church which was artistically decorated for the occasion. The bride was daintily attired in a creation of organdy muslin and carried a shower bouquet of bridal roses and maiden hair fern. She was attended by Miss Elsie Dowler of Millet as bridesmaid, who carried a beautiful bouquet of pink roses, intermixed with sunflowers.

The groom was supported by Mr. Hobart Dowler, a boyhood friend.

Among those who attended was Mrs. G. W. Walker of Winnipeg, aunt of the bride, who had accompanied her niece from the Prairie City. The ceremony was performed by Rev. C. H. Shepherd of Leduc, Alta., while Miss Minnie Cundall of Millet rendered Mendelssohn's wedding march.

After the ceremony the contracting parties and a number of the guests drove to the residence of Mrs. Joe D. Walker, where a dainty wedding dinner was partaken of after which amid showers of rice and good wishes, the happy couple drove to Wetaskiwin where they took the train for Calgary.

Mr. and Mrs. Gall will take up their residence in Vancouver, B.C., after a honeymoon trip through the Crow's Nest.

From Dominion to Provincial

The Alberta provincial authorities now have charge of the registry offices of the province. The change was completed late last week and announced on Saturday.

Very little change will be made on account of the change and the working of the offices will continue to a great extent, as they were before.

They will be under the authority of the Attorney-General.

Underwear a Farmer Needs
Regular weights won't do for a farmer. He must be warmer clad, because his work about the farm requires him to move to keep him out in the cold to much.

Stanfield's Unshrinkable Underwear

comes in special weights, especially for farmers. Special care has been taken in clay, bulky garments. Stanfield's Underwear is so well made that it is a perfect knit of the garment. It's pure Nova Scotia wool, that is unshrinkable. It is cut the shrink and leaves in the softness. We—and your doctor—both guarantee Stanfield's to be unshrinkable.
